

A WORD FROM THE EDITOR

Well it looks like we are coming out of the worst of COVID times. Let us hope so. We still plan to try to do hybrid meetings, locally pioneered by our friends the Guardians of Gallifrey. Contact Juan for Zoom information.

The Nebulas Finalists are out. Many of the novelettes and short stories are accessible online. Check them out. The newly renamed Science Fiction Writers Association (SFWA) have decided to do a virtual ceremony again on May 21. In May we will discuss novel finalist Machinehood by SB Divya.

The Hugos finalists will be announced in April 7. Looking forward to those. I will send out information on where you can watch it. I hope Chicon 8 has fun with the presentation.

Going to try and do a review of one of the novel finalists.

David Lussier

I heard from Dave's sister Kathy that he passed away at the end of March. Dave was active in Fandom here and in Massachusetts. He attended a few Worldcons and the major Boston cons before moving to Orlando. He was a helpful volunteer at OASIS and covered the OASFiS Used Book Dealer's Room Table. Dave liked to hang out at the con suite and engage with fellow fans.

There are two ways to be a science fiction and fantasy fan in Florida.

Read about the exciting fan activities other people are doing.

2.

Start doing exciting things yourself, and meet new friends "in the flesh" with OASFIS!

We're OASFIS - the Orlando Area Science Fiction Society. We enjoy and promote science fiction, fantasy, horror, books, movies, TV series, costuming, gaming - every part of the most imaginative hobby in existence. Of all the conventions in Central Florida, only our OASIS conventions are operated by fans, for fans, and not for profit...bringing affordable fun that speaks to your interests. Bring your unique fan interests to life and share them with Florida's fan community. We work with other fan organizations to bring our mutual passions to life. Visit our monthly meetings...and help shape fandom's future by joining OASFIS. Individual and family memberships are available. If you're tired of just sitting, you're welcome at OASFIS...no bones about it!

Besides monthly meetings and our OASIS conventions, read about our special events and activities on our web site! Members can contribute articles, reviews and original fiction to our magazine Event Horizon. We want to hear from you!
